

Scout Online

The diary of Scouting in Kenya...

In this edition | KSA elects a new Chief Scout|

WELCOME ABOARD, SIR

Hon. Francis Ole Kaparo EGH, the former KSA Chief Scout, the Chief Commissioner Mr. Ray C. Musau and Ms. Lydia Kiburu Deputy Chief Commissioner welcome the Newly Elected Chief Scout of the Association Prof. Jacob Kaimenyi to the movement.

Prof. Jacob Kaimenyi EGH, is the newly elected Chief Scout of the Kenya Scouts Association.

In his maiden speech, Prof. Kaimenyi said it was a great honor and privilege to be elected as the 4th Chief Scout of the Association and affirmed that he will implement what the scouting movement aspires to do.

“What do Kenyans and the world at large expect of a Scout” asked Prof. Kaimenyi.

“Discipline in all aspect of our lives is what is expected of us” he said.

He further urged all Scouts to serve the nation in a big way and to be the change it needs.

Transition to the left hand shake

Prof. Kaimenyi Addressing the AGM after being elected as the Association's Chief Scout on 21st March 2017

Chief Scout at the Kenya Scouts Association Head Quarters

Chief Scout with the National Executive Commissioner Mr. Moses O. Danda

Meeting with the KSA staff

Chief Scout shares a joke with the staff

Mr Fredrik Kama Kama welcomes Prof. Kaimenyi to Africa Support Centre/WSB

Prof. Kaimenyi further assured the Association that the government will issue title deeds for its parcels of land in Nyeri, Mombasa, Embu and Bungoma to enable it develop Scouts camps and centres.

He finally thanked all Scouts for the confidence bestowed on him and promised to propel the movement to greater heights.

Visit to KSA Head quarters

Speaking at Rowallan Scouts Camp during a familiarization tour of the Kenya Scouts Association's Head quarters, the Chief Scout congratulated the staff for the good work they were doing by providing technical support to volunteers across the country.

Prof. Kaimenyi appreciated that staff members at the Association reflected the face of the country in terms of ethnic diversity and promised to work closely with them to ensure objectives of the Association are met.

He further urged the staff to love their work as this was the only sure way of finding fulfillment in what one does.

Former Chief Scouts at the Association include retired President Daniel Arap Moi, the late Cabinet Minister Jeremiah Nyaga and former House speaker Mr. Francis Ole Kaparo.

NOTICE BOARD

Rover Mate I and II training

3rd- 6th May 2017—Rowallan Scout Camp

Ahmad Alhendawi Secretary General (WOSM) Visit to Kenya Scouts Association

16th May - Rowallan Scouts Camp and Nyeri Scouts Centre

Editorial Team

Editor in Chief:
Moses O. Danda

Editor:
Risper P. Omala

Associate Editor:
Josephat Gitonga
Patrick Wambua

Photographer:
Zachary Munayi