

THE KENYA SCOUTS
ASSOCIATION

The Kenya Scouts Association is an educational Movement for young people, which provides non-formal education that complements the core-curriculum offered in our educational institutions. The Association is looking for suitable candidates to fill the positions of Training Officer.

The Training Officer is responsible to the Manager, Scouting Development and is mandated to ensure all adults in scouting are empowered through training, seminars and workshops to deliver the youth programmes effectively.

Duties and responsibilities

- i. Providing a guidance on the Management of adult in scouting
- ii. Custodian of the National Training Policy
- iii. Review Existing training content with a view to aligning it with the new trends
- iv. and needs
- v. Organize for the development of training materials
- vi. Prepare annual work plans for the training function
- vii. Coordinate training activities for trainers and scout leaders
- viii. Manage database for all adults in scouting in the country

Job Specifications

- i. University Degree in any social science discipline preferably Education.
- ii. Training in pedagogical skills
- iii. ALT/LT level of training in Scouting
- iv. Skills in curriculum design
- v. ICT skills

All applications should be addressed to:

The National Executive Commissioner
Kenya Scouts Association Rowallan Scouts Camp
P.O. Box 4122-00100, Nairobi.

OR

Emailed to: recruitment@kenyascouts.org

Applications to reach us by 22nd July, 2022. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted